

NEW PRODUCTS*ROCK ISLAND AUCTION CO.
HAS RECORD BREAKING YEAR

Rock Island Auction Company's December Premiere Auction as sales reached nearly $8 million. The buyers confirming the belief that gun collections are "tangible assets" that seem to be a solid investment in this unstable economy. This is a trend RIAC has seen all year, the very successful December sale put them over $31 million in sales this year. This auction featured the first installment of the Will Hoffeld Estate and Firearms Collection. The Hoffeld collection is a study in the manufacturing of firearms and more particularly, Colts. At the request of Mr. Hoffeld's family this sale benefited the NRA Foundation. Also a strong supporter of the NRA, RIAC announced a matching pledge to benefit the NRA foundation.
